Plasma Product Biotechnology Meeting

May 11- 15, 2009

Insotel Punta Prima, Menorca, Spain

Welcome to the Sixth Plasma Product Biotechnology Meeting which will be held in May of 2009 on the island of Menorca at Insotel Club Punta Prima.

The resort lies on the south coast not far from the major city of Mahon and very close to the airport. The island is served daily from Barcelona, Palma de Mallorca and several other major European cities. The island of Menorca has a unique flavour and atmosphere. The small village of Punta Prima with its restaurants and bars has its own sandy beach only 300 m from Insotel.

Visit the web site www.bo-conf.com/ppb09/ regularly to follow the development of the program.
